

Art Guides

Asia Week 2018: Your Go-To Guide to All the Shows, Parties, and Auctions

Highlights include a Winter Olympics-themed exhibition at the Korean Cultural Center.

Sarah Cascone & Caroline Goldstein, March 14, 2018

GALLERIES

Matsui Kosei's Neriage brush-rubbed vessel (1978); Kamoda Shoji's vessel with blue enamel (1977); Wada Morihiro's Sanmonki Cedar-patterned Pyramidal (1981).

"Three Giants: Kamoda Shoji, Matsui Kosei and Wada Morihiro" at Joan B. Mirviss, Ltd.

Works from three of Japan's most accomplished clay artists are on display to coincide with Asia Week; the works of Shoji, Kosei, and Morihiro are functional and innovative objects, each with their own individual style.

Location: Joan B. Mirviss, Ltd., 39 East 78th Street Suite 401

Price: Free

Date and Time: March 14–April 20; Monday–Friday, 11 a.m.–6 p.m.